Alberta Minimum Wage Profile April 2006 - March 2007

Introduction

The Alberta Minimum Wage Profile presents current information on minimum wage earners in Alberta and the other provinces. Statistics include the percentage of employees earning minimum wage in each province plus the characteristics of Alberta minimum wage earners.

The Alberta Minimum Wage Profile uses rates that are effective for two time periods: April 1, 2006 to March 31, 2007 and April 1, 2005 to March 31, 2006.

Interprovincial Analysis

Alberta's proportion of minimum wage earners was lower from the April 2005 – March 2006 reference period to the April 2006 – March 2007 reference period. The Canadian percentage increased as provinces raised their minimum wages.

	April 2006 - March 2007	April 2005 - March 2006
Alberta	1.3%	1.9%
Canada	4.5%	4.4%

According to figure 2, eight provinces' minimum wages increased from March 1, 2006 to March 1, 2007.

Province	March 1, 2007	March 1, 2006
Manitoba	$7.60	$7.25
New Brunswick	$6.70	$6.40
Newfoundland and Labrador	$7.00	$6.50
Nova Scotia	$7.15	$6.80
Ontario	$8.00	$7.75
Prince Edward Island	$7.15	$6.80
Quebec	$7.75	$7.60
Saskatchewan	$7.95	$7.55

In figure 3, six of the eight provinces with increases to their minimum wage also had an increase in their percentage of minimum wage earners. The exceptions were Manitoba and Québec which experienced a decrease of 0.5 percentage points and 0.6 percentage points respectively. Newfoundland and Labrador had the largest percentage increase, at 1.9 percentage points.

Percentage of Employees Earning Minimum Wage	April 2006 - March 2007	April 2005 - March 2006

Ontario	5.4%	4.5%
Prince Edward Island	5.3%	4.6%
Quebec	4.0%	4.6%
Saskatchewan	5.3%	4.4%

Most of Alberta's employees earned more than minimum wage, as shown in figure 4. The province had 17,767 minimum wage earners, which represented the lowest percentage of minimum wage earners among Canadian provinces, at 1.3%. This analysis was based on 1,397,460 Alberta employees of organizations. This total excludes 500,083 individuals who were self-employed, unpaid family workers or worked more than 44 hours per week.

APPENDIX A

Methodology

The data for this profile is gathered from the Labour Force Survey (LFS) conducted by Statistics Canada. Each month, the Data Development and Evaluation branch of Alberta Employment, Immigration and Industry receives LFS files from Statistics Canada. This includes a microdata file, which contains the complete file of all LFS responses.

The minimum wage analysis is performed on the microdata using the statistical software package, Statistical Analysis System, or SAS. The Canadian territories are not captured in the LFS so they are excluded from this analysis. Twelve-month averages are used to ensure the results are not affected by seasonality. The microdata files for each of the twelve months examined are combined into one large data set and annual averages are then calculated. For example, in this profile, the results are an average of the April 2006 to May 2007 figures.

Minimum wage rates often change; therefore the minimum wage profile will differ from one report to the next.

Occupational and industrial classifications were based on the following.

National Occupational Classification – Statistics 2001 http://www.statcan.ca/english/Subjects/Standard/soc/2001/nocs01-menu.htm

North American Industry Classification System 2007 http://www.statcan.ca/english/Subjects/Standard/naics/2007/naics07-menu.htm

All data was taken from Statistics Canada, Labour Force Survey microdata files, with the following exceptions:

Definitions

These definitions are from Statistics Canada, except for "Employees" and the occupational and industrial groups.

Employees

In this analysis, people who were either self-employed or listed as having an hourly wage rate of $0.00 were removed from the overall employment figure to determine the number of employees. Employees working greater than 44 hours were also excluded from the analysis. Please note that the number of employees in organizations is different from the employment figure for Alberta.

Full-Time Employees

People who usually work 30 hours or more per week at their main or only job.

Minimum Wage Earner

People who earned minimum wage or less. Some employees fall outside the scope of the Employment Standards Code's minimum wage provisions and may earn less than minimum wage. See Section 8 of the Employment Standards Regulation and section 2(3)(g) of the Code for more information.

Occupations in Social Science, Government Service and Religion

Occupations in this major group include Recreation, Sports and Fitness Program Supervisors and Early Childhood Educators and Assistants.

Other Services (except Public Administration) Industry

Consists of establishments engaged in repairing or maintaining motor vehicles, machinery, equipment and other products; providing personal services; organizing/promoting religious activities; and promoting/advocating causes in various organizations and associations.

Part-Time Employees

People who usually work less than 30 hours per week at their main or only job.

Permanent Job

A permanent job is one that is expected to last as long as the employee wants it, given that business conditions permit. There is no pre-determined termination date.

Sales and Service Occupations n.e.c.

Occupations in this major group are primarily concerned with providing services not elsewhere classified in other Sales and Service occupational groups, non-store retail sales not elsewhere classified and providing services related to sales. Examples of occupations in this category include Hairstylists, Cleaners and Butchers.

Temporary Job

A temporary job has a predetermined end date, or will end as soon as a specified project is completed, including seasonal jobs; temporary, term or contract jobs, including work done through a temporary help agency; casual jobs; and other temporary work.

Wage

Hourly wage/salary before taxes and other deductions, including tips, commissions and bonuses.

Notes:

In many jurisdictions, special minimum wage rates apply to certain specific occupations (e.g., domestics, salespersons, crop harvesters and employees who usually receive gratuities).

In British Columbia, "inexperienced employees" are those who had no paid employment experience prior to November 15, 2001 and who have since accumulated less than 500 hours of paid employment experience with one or more employers. In Nova Scotia, the term refers to those who have not been employed for more than three months by any employer to do the work for which they are presently employed.

These rates apply to students under 18 who are employed up to 28 hours in a week, or during a school holiday.

[™] Effective April 1, 2007, and on April 1 of each subsequent year, this rate will increase by an amount corresponding to the annual increase for the preceding year in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for the city of Whitehorse. To date, Yukon is the only jurisdiction in Canada to tie annual wage increases to the CPI.

The following minimum wage comparison table factors in taxes and then ranks the provinces with the highest to lowest after tax wage rate. Please note that this table and the graph below it were based on the most recent minimum wages as of July 16, 2007 and can, therefore, only be reviewed separately from the rest of the analysis in this report.
